

The GRC gave a voice to grandparents by being instrumental in getting H.B. 91-1255 passed for grandparents rights in the state of Colorado. It helps grandparents to acquire legal rights of visitation, allocation of parental responsibilities, adoption and intervention when grandchildren have been placed in foster care, as well as in abusive situations, or in broken family conditions that's harmful to them, and provides a support system for grandparents raising grandchildren and parents who have lost custody, thus maintaining their status in the family and in society. Grandparenting or intergenerational involvement in raising children today is vital for the future of our nation. As such grandparents should be portrayed in the media as vital and indispensable members of the family and community. An attorney on staff to answer any all legal questions the GRC cannot accommodate.

Grandparents Seeking Visitation Rights and/or Custody of Grandchildren and Parents Who Have Lost Custody

Brokenhearted parents must learn from other brokenhearted parents/grandparents. Professionals can add to their knowledge and point toward help; therefore, they might be consulted. But when we are talking about separation from our grandchildren/children, only one who has “been there” understands. We at the Grandparents Resource Center understand because we have been there. We have lived the pain of losing a child, not seeing a grandchild and feeling like there was no one that understood. Come in for a free consultation one of our staff will be able to help you with your pain.
